

Welcome to Downtown Lancaster, Pennsylvania. We offer a delightful assortment of over 250 boutiques, restaurants, art galleries, and entertainment and performing arts venues. Downtown Lancaster also boasts an incredibly rich heritage to be experienced at our many museums, churches and historic buildings.

Lancaster is also home to our own minor league baseball team, the Lancaster Barnstormers, as well as world class education and healthcare institutions.

Downtown Lancaster is alive with activity as new shops, restaurants and businesses open monthly. Construction cranes are abundant as we prepare for new performing arts venues, parking facilities, education and healthcare expansions, as well as a new hotel and convention center complex.

A short drive from Baltimore and Philadelphia regions, Downtown Lancaster is also accessible via Amtrak and 2 regional airports are nearby.

A few Lancaster City Statistics

Geography – City of Lancaster

Land area (square miles)	7.4
Persons per square miles	7,616.5

Population

City of Lancaster	56,000
Surrounding Municipalities (10 Mile radius of/including the City)	176,000
Lancaster County	470,000

Age – City of Lancaster

15 or younger	13,191
16-24	10,104
25-44	17,161
45-64	9,959
65+	5,933

Higher Education Students

City of Lancaster	3,000
Surrounding Municipalities (10 Mile radius of/including the City)	13,100
Lancaster County	18,000

Lancaster County Tourism

8.3 Million Annually
Spending nearly $1.5 billion
Census 2000

Employment

City of Lancaster	25,000
Surrounding Municipalities (10 Mile radius of/including the City)	103,300
Lancaster County	240,000

Median Household Income

City of Lancaster	$30,000
Surrounding Municipalities (10 Mile radius of Downtown)	$48,600
Lancaster County	$45,000

Census 2000